CHILD PORNOGRAPHY INDICTMENT

ORLANDO - A federal grand jury in Orlando, Florida, returned an indictment charging DAVID NURMI with sexual exploitation of children (Count One), possession of materials containing visual depiction of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct that had been mailed, shipped, and transported in interstate commerce (Count Two), and distribution of marihuana to a person under 21 years of age (Count Three). Count One carries a minimum mandatory prison sentence of 15 years and a maximum prison sentence of 30 years; Count Two carries a minimum mandatory prison sentence of five years and a maximum prison sentence of 30 years; Count Three carries a minimum mandatory prison sentence of one year and a maximum prison sentence of 10 years. The Indictment also seeks forfeiture of Nurmi's house because the indictment alleges he produced child pornography in his house.

The case was investigated by special agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The case will be prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Cynthia Hawkins Collazo of the United States Attorney's Office.

An Indictment is merely an allegation that a crime has been committed. All defendants are presumed innocent until the entry of a guilty plea or until the defendant is proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
